

QUESTIONS for VIRTUAL SMALL GROUPS

JOHN WEEK 2

A NOTE TO LEADERS:

Throughout the John series, we've put together a daily devotional to help guide your studies. Encourage your group to walk through the John devotional study together and using it to help guide your discussions. Discussion questions for this week are pulled out of the John Week Two guide.

To help you get started, we outlined this week as we have in the past. Moving forward, we'd suggest walking through the questions in the devotional as a group. This week, ask your group to read through week 3 of the devotional if they haven't already and come prepared to discuss it together next week.

ICE BREAKERS:

- What is the best meal you've ever had?
- What are you most looking forward to doing as quarantine begins to relax some?

LAUNCH QUESTIONS:

- Have you ever had a need met in a way that went above and beyond what you thought you actually needed? How did that bless you?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

- What are some of the "wants that you have pursued in your life that have left you less than fulfilled?
- How has Jesus provided for your deeper, spiritual needs?

- Read John 6:26-27 (ESV) What does Jesus mean by “food that endures to eternal life”?
- What have you learned this week about how God provides for us through Jesus?

PRAYER IDEAS:

- Spend some time meditating on ways you look for satisfaction outside of Jesus. Share one of the ways together with your group and take turns praying for one another.

SENDING CHALLENGE:

- This week spend a little time each day working through Week 3 of the John devotional.
